CAPTURED BLACK BEAR IN ORANGE

Had Been Committing Many Thefts, But Has Now Joined His Former Owner.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., July 23.— Four weeks past the prowling of a large black bear in upper Spotsyvilvania and lower Orange counties has caused consternation to the people in those communities, and lambs, calves and chickens have disappeared, having been devoured by the bear. Parties were organized and different sections hunted over, but the bear could not be found. It developed that the bear had escaped from a party of Italians, who traveled through the country. Yesterday these Italians were searching in lower Orange for the bear, and while resting, one of them heard a rustle in the woods. He at once suspected that it was the bear.
He gave a peculiar whistle, which was answered by a grunt, and he darted in the woods. The bear was delighted to see his master, attack his head, and the familiar halloo was soon in its place. The bear and owner soon made for another section.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, Va., July 23.—Robert Crawford was the fourth rioter given a hearing in the Police Court this morning. It was shown that Crawford was drunk; that he gave his watch to a friend to throw at a Greek restaurant, and the friend complied with his request. While it was also shown that he encouraged the rioters and refused to leave when told by officers his condition lessened his punishment, and he was fined $30 and given one day in jail.

TRESSALIA SCENE OF PRETTY WEDDING

Miss Lucy Preston Beale Becomes Bride of Mr. Oscar Caperton Huftman.

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE THERE

Among Guests from Distance Are Mr. and Miss Boulware, of Richmond.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BUCHANAN, Va., July 23.—Mr. Oscar Caperton Huftman and Miss Lucy Preston Beale were married this afternoon at 7 o'clock at Tressalia, the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bradford Beale. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank A. Rideout, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church. The bride, attired in a white lace dress and wearing the handsome pearls of the family, was led to the improvised altar by her father, who gave her away. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Preston Johnston Beale, who acted as best man, with Miss Alice Preston and Mr.
M. S. Huftman as attendants.

The house was handsomely decorated with a profusion of flowers.
American Beauty roses and sweet peas predominated. It was strictly a home wedding, besides the immediate family only a few relatives and intimate friends of the family being present.
Of the relatives present were Mr.
Auburn L. Boulware and Miss Janie Boulware, of Richmond; Judge and Mrs. Gordon Robertson, of Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Preston, of Amherst.

Following the ceremony light refreshments were served, and Mr. and Mrs. Huftman took the Norfolk and Western train on a Northern trip. On their return they will reside at Oak Hill, a charming residence, which has been handsomely fitted up as a home for the bride.

The date of the marriage was only recently decided upon, the announcement having been made just a few days ago. Notwithstanding this, many presents have been received.

The bride, who is the only daughter, is widely known in Virginia and several of the Northern cities, where she has visited. She possesses in a high degree the charms which have made notable the women of the Preston family.

Mr. Huftman, though yet a young man on the sunny side of thirty, has achieved prominence in this section as a man of force and character. His career has been watched by numerous friends, who will rejoice that a brilliant future seems now assured him by reason of his latest success.

BREWERY MEN GIVE UP WORK

Allege Management of Old Dominion Company Was Gradually Introducing Negroes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., July 23.— Because the management of the Old Dominion Brewing and Ice Company failed to sign the union agreement, and persisted in the employment of negroes, the union workmen employed by the company refused to go to work to-day. Only about a score of men are involved, and it is understood that the plant will continue in operation without interruption.

Discussing the matter, one of the union men said, "It is not much of a strike with us, it is just a quit." This agreement was drawn up three months ago and the company has been putting us off from time to time, and all the while employing more and more negroes. We simply saw that the time was coming when only negro labor would be employed by the brewery, and decided to get down and out before we were put out."

The men who quit work belong to local No. 158, International Brewery Workers. The matter will be brought before the Central Labor Union Friday night.

Young Millionaire and Party of Gentlemen Arrive in Trivia.

Surprised at Uneasiness.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, July 23.—The yacht Trivia, with her owner, Harold S. Vanderbilt, and a party of friends aboard, this afternoon sailed leisurely into Hampton Roads and dropped anchor off Old Point. The voyage of the yacht is uneventful. The delay to the yacht is accounted for from the fact that young Mr. Vanderbilt "was in no special hurry to get here." He came down the Chesapeake by easy stages, stopping wherever and whenever it was the pleasure of those aboard. He did not think that any one would be looking for him, unless it be perhaps Captain L. W. Crowley, the skipper of the Trivia, whom Mr. Vanderbilt knew would arrive here several days in advance of him. He was surprised to learn that newspaper stories had been printed about his absence. There are no ladies aboard the Trivia. The first thing Mr. Vanderbilt did after the anchor of the Trivia had been dropped was to hasten to Norfolk to advise Skipper Crowley that he was here and bid the skipper board the yacht. Mr. Vanderbilt and his friends are here for the purpose of joining the Jamestown Exposition, and this they will set about to-morrow.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BLUMSBURG, Va., July 23.—A serious shooting affair took place late yesterday evening at Vivian yards between James Northcross, a railroad Northcross was relieved from duty by Mayor Clark, who is also night yard conductor at Vivian, for being on duty while intoxicated. Seven shots were exchanged.

Mayor Clark was wounded under the right arm, while Northcross was wounded in the right leg.
